

Natural Birdhouse Workshop

The Woodruff County Library will be offering a natural birdhouse workshop Thursday,

October 4th, at 10:30 am.

We are offering this as a hands-on workshop and encourage participants to bring any natural elements that you would like to incorporate into your birdhouse.

The workshop is free and open to the public.

The library is located at 201 Mulberry St.,

Augusta, AR

Call 870-347-5331 for more information.
